MITCHELL COUNTY A BLOT AND DISGRACE ON GOOD OLD

NORTH CAROLINA.

Refuses to Levy a Tax for the Poor Ex-Confederate Pensioners-Worst Coun-

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] RALEMON, N. C., June 20.—The Legislature at its last session passed an act levying a tax for the payment of pensions to ex-Confederate soldiers and soldiers widows. In all the counties save one the tax was levied and collected and paid into the Treasury. Mitchell county has not levied the pension-tax. The tax returns as made out were sent back to that county in order that they might be completed by the insertion of this tax, but the Mitchell county authorities paid no attention to the county authorities paid no attention t demand and have not levied the tax.

MAKE THEM PAY. Proceedings will be instituted against them to compel them to pay it. It is the opinion that they are trying to raise an issue and to test the constitutionality of this tax. The State Board of Pensions has ordered that no pension be paid in any county where there was no pension-tax levied. There will be no pennions in Mitchell, though a number of applications for pensions were received here.

Mitchell is the worst county in the State, and during the war furnished many troops to the Federal army as well as many guerillas and manuders. This matter of its refusal to pay the tax will be fully looked into by the State Treasurer and Attorney-General, and is likely to create a considerable stir.

Yon Bublow, who was wounded in the railroad accident near Marshall, N. C., on the 14th instant, died in this city to-day from the effect of her injuries. Her death is the second resulting from the accident, that of Mrs. J. H. Scarborough, of Knoxyille, being the first. Mrs. Von Bublow was a teacher in Claremont College, at Hickory, N. C., and was returning to her home in Cincinnati when the accident occurred,

A NOBLE WOMAN. A NOBLE WOMAN.

She was a superior woman in mind and heart and was widely known and loved as a teacher. She was born in Hillsbero, O., and her maiden name was Cole. During the late war, although her family was northern in sentiment, she devoted her time and energies to the southern cause. She was once publicly thanked by President Davis for her labors in behalf of Confederate soldiers in Kentucky. After the war she married Major Ven Buhlow, of Louisiana, at Salt Lake City. He died about one year afterwards. Her age at about one year afterwards. Her age at death was fifty-eight.

Concord, inserted by the example of Winston and Charlotte, is seriously considering the proposition to issue $20,000 in bonds for street improvement.

It is proposed to establish a national bank at Gastonia with a capital of $50,-300. The bank owned by Craig Brothers will very probably be merged into a national bank at Gastonia with a capital of $50,-300. The bank owned by Craig Brothers will very probably be merged into a national bank.

Farmers in the city to-day say that cotton is growing splendidly. The stalk is large and rapidly filling with squares. The first bloom was brought here yesterday. The outlook for a good corn crop is as good as it has been for years. The farmers are jubilant over their bright prospects.

GOLD-MINE COMPANY. The Idler Gold-Mining Company, of Rutherford county, has been incorporated at Marion, N. C., with a capital stock of $1,000,000 holos shares of $10 each. The company has branch offices at Rutherfordton and Boston, Mass. It controls some fine mineral lands, and will operate on an extensive scale.

RICH COLORED MEN. Examples of Ex-Slaves in the South Who

It will probably be surprising to know that in Galveston there is a colored man who is worth over $330,000. His name is Silvester and he has a fine mansion in the most destrable residence portion of the city. And, what will most surprise Chicago people, his wife employs none but white servants. How did Silvester get rich? Well, he got a start in politics, then ran a salcon and a gambling-house for cebered people for a few years, then went into real estate and speculated. He is shrewd and successful. One of the most successful and wealthiest real estate men of Houston is a colored man, His name is Milton Sterrett. He owns a fine residence, surrounded by important of the colored people for a few years, then went into real estate and speculated. He is shrewd and successful.

real estate men of Houston is a colored man. His name is Milton Sterrett. He owns a fine residence, surrounded by immense grounds, all terraced off and planted in the finest flowers and shrubbery, and keeps a landscape gardener to attend it. He was a waiter on the boats between Galveston and Houston before and all during the war, and made everything he has in real estate deals during the last twenty years. He owns several large plantations and is worth at least $100,000.

Thentake Senator C. N. Burton, of Fort Bend county. When the war closed and he was freed he lived on a plantation belonging to his mistress, whose husband and two sons were killed, leaving her alone in the world. She had given him a good elementary education, he was shrewd. By attention to business he soon acquired a good farm. In a few years he added to it and bought in the plantation formerly owned by his mistress and had two other large ones on the Brazos in ten years more. His old mistress being reduced to poverty he undertook to care for her. He said when he was elected to the State Senate that he owed all he was to ber kindness, and that he felt it his duty to care for her. And he sent her back to her native State—Virginia—and regular, ly remits to her—and has done so for fif.

the State Senate that he owed all he was to her kindness, and that he felt it his duty to care for her. And he sent her back to her native State—Virginia—and regularly remits to her—and has done so for fitteen years—$150 every month. He is popular with whites and blacks, Democrats and Republicans, and studied law so that he could depend on himself to manage his immense plantation and ranch interests.

Senator Burton is worth over $500,000.

Then Henry Black, the great sheeps and cattle-ranchman of Tom Green and Pecos counties, is worth nearly half a million. He has made it all in less than fifteen years. Are these men southern negroes? Yes, every one of them.

But the largest plantation-owner and the heaviest farm-land tax-payer in the rich county of Lamar was a light-colored mulatto named Harvey. He died a few weeks ago and left a widow who will be able to pull through probably, as her husband left four large plantations, a fine stock-farm, some city property in Paris, and a big bank account. Besides this he left her a snug little insurance policy on his life for $18, 500.

A Seminole Reporter.

[Pitisburgh Dispatch.]

A half-breed Seminole has come from New Orleans to Pittsburgh in a small paper cance. John Ryegrass is the English translation of this Indian's unpronounceable name. Mr. Ryegrass is tall and well formed, with the small hands and feet which Lord Byron says are the sure examplers of noble descent. Ryegrass was born at Tallahachie, Fla., but was taken by Father Burger, a Jesuit priest, to the New Orleans University at the age of six-teen years. He seems to be fairly edu-cated, and states that his ambition is to becated, and states that his amointon is to become a newspaper reporter. He will proceed up the Allegheny as far as it is navigable and then return and transport his cance to Lake Erie. John Ryegrass has written several articles for the New Orleans Picapune and other southern papers.

What is Scrofula

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumu-lating in the glands of the neck, produces un-sightly lumps or aweilings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which of pimples, cancerous growths, or many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors." It is a more formidable enemy than consumption or cancer alone, for scrotula combines the worst possible features of both. Being the meet ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How can it be cured? By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. For all affections of the blood Bood's Sarsaparilla is unequalled, and some of the cures it has effected are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula in any of its various forms, be sure to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. ble features of both. Being the most ancient be sure to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial.
